

GENERAL CABLE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE
(International)

1. TERMS OF SALE. General Cable Industries, Inc. ("Seller") will sell the goods offered by it ("Goods") to the party to which Goods are offered ("Buyer") on the terms and conditions stated herein ("Terms"). Acceptance by Buyer, and each offer by Seller, is expressly limited to the Terms. Any purported confirmation or acceptance by Seller is expressly made conditional upon assent to the additional or different terms contained herein. Buyer shall be deemed to have agreed to all of the Terms (and only such Terms), notwithstanding any different or additional terms contained in any purchase order, acknowledgement, offer, document or other communication of any kind submitted by Buyer. If not otherwise accepted, all of the Terms (and only such Terms) shall be deemed accepted if Buyer shall dispatch a purported confirmation or acceptance to Seller which substantially agrees with the Terms as to the quantity, description and price of the Goods. Such purported confirmation or acceptance shall be deemed an acceptance of the Terms and not a counteroffer, regardless of whether it contains terms or conditions which are additional to, different from, or conflicting with, the Terms. In any event Buyer shall be deemed to have accepted all of the Terms (and only such Terms) upon Buyer's acceptance or use of the Goods. Seller hereby expressly objects to any terms submitted by Buyer which are additional to, different from, or conflict with, the Terms. Neither the failure of Seller to separately object to a purchase order or other communication from Buyer, nor the development, manufacture, production or shipment of the Goods shall be deemed an agreement by Seller to any terms or conditions which are additional to, different from, or conflicting with, the Terms. The Terms, together with such other documents specifically made a part of Seller's offer, shall constitute the complete and exclusive statement of the agreement between the parties (the "Agreement"), shall supersede all previous understandings between the parties (with the exception of any separately negotiated purchase or supply agreement signed by a representative of General Cable pursuant to which this transaction is being consummated) which may have existed relating to the Goods, and may be modified only by a written instrument executed by authorized representatives of both parties.

2. RISK OF LOSS - ACCEPTANCE OF PRODUCT. Risk of loss and, unless otherwise specified, title to the Goods shall remain with Seller until the Goods are delivered in conformity with the delivery point specified in Seller's quotation, at which time title and risk of loss shall pass to Buyer. If no delivery point is specified in Seller's quotation, all shipping and delivery terms specified herein will have the definitions set forth in the Incoterms® 2010/2000 published by the International Chamber of Commerce and the Goods will be shipped Ex Works (EXW) from Seller's factory or other Seller-designated location. Seller may make partial shipments and submit invoices for such partial shipments in accordance with the payment terms set forth herein. Buyer agrees, at its cost, to insure the Goods for the full value of such Goods when the risk of loss is the responsibility of Buyer per the applicable Incoterm®. If Buyer requests that Seller postpone shipment and Seller stores the Goods at its facility for 30 days or more, Seller may invoice Buyer for storage charges at a rate of 0.5% of the invoiced amount per month.

3. DELIVERY. Shipment and arrival dates specified are approximate only. Seller's freight obligations are limited to shipping at a competitive rate (which may include certain administrative and/or logistics charges) and excess costs for freight, including handling, shall be at Buyer's expense. Quantities shipped shall be subject to standard industry shipping tolerances. Seller shall select the shipping method in its discretion unless Buyer otherwise expressly specified by Buyer.

4. RETURNS / CHANGES TO ORDERS. Goods may not be returned without Seller's prior consent and, if given, Seller will provide Buyer with complete shipping instructions. Buyer's failure or refusal to accept delivery of goods without just cause is considered a default. If Buyer rejects conforming Goods considered "standard" or "stock" items, Buyer will remain liable for damages or loss suffered by Seller, including but not limited to storage, shipping and restocking costs, anticipated profits, and losses due to market fluctuations. If Buyer rejects conforming Goods that are specifically manufactured, designed or packaged, Buyer shall remain liable for the full price of the Goods less any net salvage value recovered by Seller. Buyer may only change existing orders with the prior, personally signed written consent from an authorized employee of Seller.

5. PAYMENT AND PRICE. Prices for the product are as stated in the Agreement and in United States Dollars. Unless otherwise indicated, Seller's prices are subject to price adjustments based upon fluctuations in raw material prices. Payment is due one hundred (100%) percent net thirty (30) days after invoice date. Buyer will pay a service charge on overdue accounts at a rate equal to the lesser of one and one-half (1.5%) percent per month or the maximum amount allowable by applicable law.

6. CREDIT. Seller may alter or suspend credit and/or change credit terms when, in its sole opinion, the financial condition of Buyer warrants such action. In such case, in addition to its other remedies, Seller may: (i) require Buyer to make cash payment or provide security acceptable to Seller, in Seller's sole discretion, before making shipment; or (ii) accelerate the due date of payment by Buyer. If such payment or security is not provided, Seller may suspend or reduce shipment and stop Goods in transit to Buyer. Without limiting the foregoing, Buyer's failure to pay any invoice when due will make all other unpaid invoices immediately due and payable and Seller may, at its option, cancel the unfulfilled portion of this Agreement and all other contracts and orders with Buyer (including outstanding quotations to Buyer). Seller may utilize any or all of these remedies in any combination. Seller's acceptance of partial payment is not a waiver of any right of Seller. Upon any payment default, Buyer agrees to pay Seller its costs of collection, including attorneys' fees and costs.

7. LIEN. Buyer grants Seller as security for all debts, liabilities and obligations owing by Buyer to Seller, whether under this Agreement or otherwise, a lien and security interest in Buyer's rights, title and interest in the Goods and the proceeds thereof, including without limitation any accounts receivable from the sale of Goods. Buyer authorizes Seller to file all UCC financing statements and other documents Seller may deem necessary to perfect the security interest granted herein.

8. FORCE MAJEURE; CANCELLATION. Seller may cancel the Agreement or any part thereof, or suspend performance of its obligations under this Agreement, all without liability on its part, if Seller's ability to perform is prevented, impaired, delayed, or made commercially impractical by any cause beyond its control, including but not limited to acts of God or the public enemy, government acts, work stoppages or interruption, fire, flood, epidemics, quarantines, war, riot, default by a common carrier, shortages of or price increases in raw materials, freight embargo, sabotage, or unusually severe weather. In that event, Seller may allocate available Goods among its customers, including Seller's affiliates, as it deems equitable. Buyer may not cancel any Agreement, in whole or in part, except with Seller's express written consent.

9. REMEDIES; WAIVER; LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. Seller may seek all appropriate relief in the event that Buyer defaults under any Agreement or these Terms. In the event of default, Seller may terminate, or cancel the unfulfilled portion of, any outstanding Agreement. Additionally, Seller may accelerate all amounts receivable from Buyer, which shall become immediately due and payable, stop production of all Goods, stop shipment of all Goods, and/or repossess those Goods in Buyer's possession in which Seller has a security or ownership interest. Events of default shall include, but not be limited to, the following: (1) Buyer files a petition in bankruptcy or under a similar law in any jurisdiction, including reorganization, insolvency, dissolution, liquidation or a similar event; (2) Buyer fails to pay any invoice under any Agreement within thirty (30) days of its due date; or (3) a court of competent jurisdiction issues an order appointing a receiver, custodian or administrator over all or any portion of Buyer's assets. No right of Seller under this Agreement shall be deemed waived unless evidenced in a written document signed by an authorized representative of Seller. All rights and remedies of Seller under this Agreement are cumulative and not exclusive of Seller's other rights and remedies at law. No claim by Buyer for any damages shall exceed the purchase price of the Goods with respect to which such damages are claimed. SELLER SHALL HAVE NO LIABILITY TO BUYER, BUYER'S CUSTOMERS OR BUYER'S CONTRACTORS FOR LOST PROFITS, OR ANY SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES, WHETHER ARISING IN CONTRACT, TORT, OR OTHERWISE.

10. WARRANTY. Seller warrants that the Goods will conform to the Seller's standards specifications for such material, will be new, and will be free from defects in material and workmanship for a period commencing on the date Seller shipped the Goods to Buyer and continuing for a period of 12 months thereafter. SELLER DISCLAIMS ALL OTHER WARRANTIES, EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION THE WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND/OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, AND/OR ANY OTHER WARRANTY CLAIMED TO HAVE ARISEN BY USAGE OR TRADE, COURSE OF DEALING, OR COURSE OF PERFORMANCE.

In no event shall Seller be responsible for costs of installation, removal, transportation, or other ancillary costs or expenses associated with repair or replacement, or for any incidental, indirect, or consequential costs or damages, including, but not limited to, any loss of use, loss of profit or revenue, downtime, or delay,

All repairs or replacements by Seller under the provisions of this warranty shall be free of charge, F.O.B. delivery point called for in the original order. If the Goods are to be resold or incorporated into a finished product, Buyer shall obtain and maintain at its expense, a product liability insurance policy covering the Goods sold hereunder with terms, limits and conditions acceptable to Seller. Seller shall be named as an additional insured under such policy. All such insurance will be effected under valid and enforceable policies issued by insurers authorized to issue such policies under applicable law. Such insurance shall be underwritten by a reputable and internationally recognized entity that is acceptable to Seller, in Seller's discretion. The Buyer will furnish Seller with proof of insurance upon request. Should any of the above described policies be cancelled before the expiration date thereof, notice will be delivered in accordance with policy provisions.

12. NON-DISCLOSURE. Data, drawings, specifications or other technical information furnished to Buyer by Seller pursuant to this Agreement shall not become the property of Buyer, shall only be used by Buyer in fulfilling obligations imposed by this Agreement, shall not be duplicated or disclosed to others without Seller's prior consent, and shall not be construed as granting any rights whatsoever under any intellectual property right of Seller.
